

---

Employment History

---

American Research Center in Egypt (ARCE), 2008 –

- Project photographer for ARCE Luxor.
- Responsibilities include: Field school basic photography and archaeological photography course, documentation and publication photos of all ARCE projects in Khonsu temple.
- Photography and reconstruction illustrations for SCA excavations at Karnak.

Selected Publications & Projects, 2002 – present

- Archaeology article, "Bronze Age Oman," Current World Archaeology. Scheduled Publication, Nov/Dec 2008.
- Travel article and photography, "The Bedouin Experience," Serendib Magazine, May/June 2008.
- Reconstruction illustrations for Italian archaeology mission: Joint Hadd Project. Oman, January – April 2008.
- Article and photography, "He Digs Adventure in the Desert," CanWest News Service, March 2008.
- Reconstruction illustrations and photography for the University College of London: Ancient Merv Project. Turkmenistan, September – October 2007.
- Multimedia Consultant; video, photography, illustration and map creation for the University of Calgary: Mandaras Archaeological Project (MAP) Cameroon, September – December 2002

Japan Exchange and Teaching (JET) Program, 2004 – 2007

- Assistant Language Teacher (elementary/junior high/adult) in Ohyama, Toyama prefecture, Japan.
- Worked as part of the teaching team in seven different schools.
- Included curriculum development, language camps, and seminars on multimedia and phonics in the classroom.
- Canadian cultural ambassador participating in a variety of internationalization activities with the local community.

---

Education

---

Bachelor of Design (B.Design) Alberta College of Art & Design (ACAD), Calgary, AB, 2001

- Major: Visual Communications - Honors standing in Advanced Illustration
- Third year exchange program participant – Nova Scotia College of Art and Design (NSCAD) Halifax N.S. (99/00)
- Henry Clinton Memorial Scholarship for academic achievement (98/99)

---

Relevant Skills & Abilities

---

- Versatile, quick learner, with knowledge and use of Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, Final Cut Pro, and Lightroom.
- Languages: Japanese, working knowledge of French, as well as basic Italian & Arabic.

---

Intercultural & Volunteer Experience

---

- Toyama-ken Honorary Ambassador. July 2007 – present.
- Seed Center English language volunteer and photography workshop leader. India, Madurai, August 2005.
- Sac Dene (Rocky Mountain YMCA). Participant on a 54-day canoe trip down the Mackenzie River meeting with Dene peoples and communities along the route. July – Aug 1997